

Duplex Apartment "F" has seven rooms. The living room has a window expanse of 30 feet facing south with a fascinating view of Manhattan. All rooms in this apartment have southern exposure. The 22-foot reception gallery has a circular stairway and there is a woodburning fireplace at the easterly end of the living room. The first master bedroom has a large adjoining dressing room. There is a private elevator as well as a separate service stairway. Off the kitchen there is a bar/pantry with its own sink. The apartment has a separate service entrance and spacious service hall. The powder room has the privacy of a separate hall leading from the reception gallery.

Lower Duplex

